Washington, D.C.—As part of its 40th anniversary, the American College of Emergency Physicians (ACEP) has announced that it has honored a few selected “Emergency Physicians who have dedicated their careers to their patients, their community and their specialty”. Elijah Berg MD, FACEP, CEO of Medical Reimbursement Systems, was so honored, and was named as a "Hero of Emergency Medicine.”.

Dr. Elijah Berg, who has B.A. in Economics, is an expert in Emergency Department reimbursement. He has chaired ACEP’s Reimbursement Committee and chairs the Massachusetts ACEP Reimbursement Committee. He previously served as president of the Massachusetts ACEP state chapter and as an ACEP councilor. He is also a Medicare Emergency Medicine Carrier Advisory State Representative, and is an active member of national ACEP’s Coding and Nomenclature Advisory Committee. Says Dr. Berg: “It is an honor to work with ACEP on behalf all emergency physicians and the patients who depend on them.”
